

CLABISI ONABANJO UNIVERSITY, AGO IWOYE
CENTER FOR CONTINUING EDUCATION
FACULTY OF LAW
DIPLOMA IN LAW

COURSE: CONSTITUTIONAL LAW
SEMESTER: RAIN SEMESTER
INSTRUCTION: ATTEMPT ANY FOUR QUESTIONS
TIME ALLOWED: TWO AND HALF HOURS

CODE: DIL 114
SESSION: 2016/2017

1. A delegate cannot sub delegate his function that is delegatus non potest delegare. Discuss this rule.

b. What are the criticisms against the practice of delegation of powers?

2. Nay is 32 years old, and he is very rich and influential, he joined the A.K.A. party in 2011 and at the time he joined the A.K.A. party possessed primary six certificate and he has not obtained any other certificate up till date.

He has decided to contest as gubernatorial candidate in the forth coming election in Anambra State Nigeria in 2018. He has approached you to advise him on his eligibility to contest. Advise him.

b. Explain parliamentary privileges and immunities.

3. Discuss the attributes, functions and justification of Public Corporations.

4. Mic born of German parents in 1989 in Nigeria and he has been living in Nigeria since his birth. He has also joined APP Political Party in 2009. He has influence and affluence and on that basis, he has decided to contest as a senator. He has approached you for advice on his chances and eligibility. Advise him.

b. List the functions of the parliament in a constitutional democracy.

5. Nangra is country whose constitutional provisions are similar to the provisions of Nigerian Constitution. There was a notice of allegation against the Executive President of Nangra and the National Assembly insisted on removing the president from office. Educate him on the procedure.

6. Enumerate the factors militating against the independence of the Nigerian Judiciary.

b. Mention the various courts listed under section 6(5) of the constitution of the Federal Republic of Nigeria, 1999 (as amended).

7. The Separation of powers is not a question of mere Convenience, nor is it an accident of political history, but a deliberate regulatory step to prevent tyranny. Discuss.