

184259

OLABISI ONABANJO UNIVERSITY AGO-IWOYE
CENTER FOR CONTINUING EDUCATION
FACULTY OF LAW

PROGRAMME:	DIPLOMA IN LAW
EXAMINATION:	RAIN SEMESTER
SESSION:	2017/2018
COURSE TITLE AND CODE:	CONSTITUTIONAL LAW (DIL 114)
INSTRUCTION:	ANSWER ANY FOUR QUESTIONS
TIME ALLOWED:	2 ½ HOURS

1. Discuss the law making process in the Nigerian National Assembly.
- 2a. Discuss the attributes, functions and justification of public corporations.
- b. List the various methods of controlling the activities of Public Corporations.
- 3a. Explain briefly parliamentary privileges and immunities
- b. List the functions of the Legislature in a constitutional democratic society.
- c. What are the criticisms ^{merits & demerits} against the practice of delegation of power?
- 4a. Discuss how somebody can be deprived of his citizenship under the Constitution of the Federal Republic of Nigeria, 1999 (as amended). 30
- b. Mr. Boah a Liberian has indicated his intention to become a Nigerian Citizen, advise him on the procedure under the Constitution of the Federal Republic of Nigeria, 1999 (as amended). 27
5. Neenah is 32 years old born of Ghanaian parents, he has been living in Nigeria since his birth, he is rich and influential, he joined A.A.A. political party in 2011 and at the time he joined the political party, he possessed primary six certificate and he has not obtained any other certificate up till date. He has indicated his intention to contest as the Senator of the National Assembly representing Ogun West Senatorial District in Ogun State in the forth coming general election in 2019. Advise him on his eligibility.
6. Discuss the followings:
 - a. Renunciation of citizenship
 - b. Powers that cannot be delegated
 - c. Merits of delegated legislation.